THOROUGHFARE OF CORK Cork, Nov. 30 .- (By The A. P.)-The odor of charred or smouldering wood pervades Cork and Patrick street, the principal thoroughfare of the city, is unightly with the bulging debris of firewrecked houses.

Since Friday the sky nightly has been lighted by the glare of incendiary fires, which have destroyed a dozen large business buildings, causing losses estimated at about $1,500,000.

Early today a second unsuccessful attempt was made to burn the city hall, which recently was badly damaged by a bomb explosion and fire. No less than five Sinn Fein clubs have been destroyed.

The present series of conflagration

The fire brigade when responding to an alarm Sunday night was fired upon by parties of masked uniformed men. Consequently the firemen fear to ven-ture forth, and when the Thomas Ashe Sinn Fein club was set on fire today they refused to leave their quarters until the protection of two lorries load-ed with soldiers was afforded them.

Not infrequently the fires have spread to adjoining property.

Explosions and fusillades from rifles and revolvers almost invariably furnish a terrifying overturn and accompani-ment to the conflagration.

As a result of these fearful nightly of deals Cork has become a city of nerves.
Business is almost at a standstill and many persons are afraid to venture abroad, even in daylight. Large numbers of the townsfolk have left Cork for less troubled districts. One effect of the prolonged strain, ac-ording to physicians, has been a sharp acrease in the number of patients ad-
